

CLOAKS—STONE & THOMAS.

Stone & Thomas.

IT TOOK NERVE!

And a pretty good bank account (fortunately we had both) to buy the entire production of three of the largest New York Cloth Houses, especially this season. The time will never be when this house will not buy new, choice seasonable goods at 25c to 40c on the dollar. That's the way these Cloaks were bought and that's the way you can buy them from us. Buying the entire production enables us to offer a selection only possible to be offered by the largest Eastern retail stores. A WORD OF WARNING:—In some cases there are twenty-five Cloaks of a kind, in others there are over 200 of a style. The goods are here at what they advertised for, but they will be sold faster than Cloaks were ever sold hereabouts.

CASES IN THE COURTS.

A Large Amount of Business Transacted on Saturday.

In Judge Paull's side of the circuit court, Saturday, the following business was transacted:

Manufacturers' Insurance Company v. George R. Tingle. Argument upon tender of seven special pleas by defendant.

James Jordan v. John J. Kain, et al. Set for December 20.

Lawrence Glatz v. M. C. Noble. Plaintiff goes to rules to mend his declaration.

Samuel Kindeberger v. John L. Shriver, motion to dismiss taken under advisement.

In the case of W. S. Foote & Co. vs. S. C. Parsons' administratrix, and others, an order was made transferring cause to Judge Campbell, and Judge Campbell entered a decree referring the cause to George R. E. Gilchrist, commissioner. An order was also entered consolidating this case with that of Oscar Onken vs. Parsons.

In the criminal court, Judge Jordan on the bench, the case of A. B. Garrett, convicted of embezzlement, came up on a motion for a new trial. The motion was overruled and after a plea for mercy from Garrett, who admitted taking the money from the instalment company, but said he thought he had a right to use it, as the company owed him on commissions, he was sentenced to two years' confinement in the penitentiary.

All Sorts of Weather.

Saturday was a very cold day, cold enough for midwinter, and a pretty good snow fall occurred in the evening. Then about midnight rain fell on the snow, and for a few hours there was a lovely coating of slush over the streets. This froze by morning, making the walking not only unpleasant, but dan-

SHOES—O'KANE & CO.

PAY LESS FOR YOUR SHOES.

If you pay less than we charge you, you get less quality in the shoes. Nobody can sell as good shoes for any less money than we do. We know that usually they don't sell as good, for they are not satisfied with so small a profit. Take this Ladies' Fine Dungola Button Shoe that we sell for $2.75 for instance. Most dealers would get $3.00 for it.
